Dear Prospective Technical Coach.

Our club, New Westminster Soccer Club (formerly known as Royal City Youth Soccer Club) is offering an exciting position that will focus on supporting our club coaches in their development and our players in achieving their personal best. Currently, we are looking for THREE people who have a B-licence and a minimum of 3 years of coaching experience within community soccer.

Who we are:

As a local organization, the cornerstones of our club are based on inclusivity, fairness, transparency, safety, fun, hard work, encouraging potential and the beautiful game of soccer. Everyone is encouraged to become a local citizen regarding positively contributing to the community. We support one another in our endeavors to make positive differences in life and excel as community leaders and athletes. We have been a member of the soccer landscape since 1965 and are now undergoing a positive transformation to enhance who we are and what we do. We strive to become a leader in community soccer in the province and beyond and are looking for motivated and experienced people to contribute to our mission.

Who you are:

You are a highly motivated, driven and passionate people-person who loves the beautiful game and is excited to coach coaches and players to achieve their personal best.

You are highly organized and adept at all levels of communication with a diverse audience.

You can work independently and as a team player.

You possess up-to-date soccer knowledge and are able to teach that effectively to a diverse audience.

You strive to inspire, encourage and positively motivate people.

You value clarity, encouragement and empowerment along with equality and respect.

The position:

The Technical Coach is a vital position within our community club, responsible for running programs and aiding in coach and player development. Successful applicants will understand and champion the mission of the club and help meet the goals of providing our members with high quality programs. This paid position reports directly to the club's Head Coach and the Director of Coaching.

Responsibilities include, but are not limited to:

- Assist with Academy sessions
- Assist with prospect sessions
- Assist with club evaluations
- Assist with Jamborees
- Work with club coaches
- Develop session plans
- Be a motivated and inspiring club ambassador
